

ROOM 1

We worked in groups to design and construct a marble ramp.

Maths, Technology and Science came together as the students planned, sketched and designed a ramp that would allow a marble to travel more than 2 metres. The ramp also had to include at least one twist or turn.

James and Mason were the class marble masters with a huge roll of 2.59m.

We had so much fun!

